CATTLE BUYING PROGRAM STARTED IN COUNTY

ROAD WORK STARTED ON GOODNIGHT TRAIL

FORTY MEN GO TO GOODNIGHT TRAIL PROJECT

Original Order Placed Men on Highway to North

OBJECTION RAISED

Engineers Agree Upon Trail As the Most Important

Forty men were started to work on the Goodnight Trail this morning under the new drouth set-up and more men will be added as the highway department is in position to use them.

W. C. Cotten, Jr., succeeds E. H. Gohmert as resident engineer and is in charge of the project. He stated yesterday that the first work would be done on the Tierra Blanca bridge. The grade will be completed, and the caliche base laid. Work will then extend to the east end of the road as fast as possible.

There was considerable dismay as to the Goodnight Trail when orders were received Tuesday at the relief office to start 75 men on the highway north of town to complete the beautification program. Protests were filed immediately with the highway department and with the district relief project engineer that this work was unnecessary until the Goodnight Trail had been completed. Meetings were held Tuesday afternoon, and the decision was reached that the Goodnight Trail was the most urgent road project in the county, and should be completed according to the plans submitted by Mr. Gohmert before he left the employment of the department.

It is believed that fully 115 men with trucks will be given work as soon as Mr. Cotten gets his plans underway.

Finishing the caliche on the Trail will take considerable time, and it is now believed that plans will be devised to complete the asphalt topping during the summer.

Government Man Is Checking Measurements Wheat Lands

A representative of the agricultural department arrived yesterday and is checking the work of measuring the wheat lands of Randall county which come under the allotment plan. It is hoped to complete the measuring by next week.

This representative arrived in Randall county earlier than was expected, which means that as soon as his work of checking is completed, Randall county wheat papers will be ready to go to Washington. The last payment of 1933 allotment, and the first payment on the 1934 contract depends upon the completion of this work.

Candidates Must File Names By Saturday Nite

County and precinct candidates have only until Saturday, June 16th, to file their applications for a place on the primary ballot in the first primary of July 28th.

A. M. Smith, county chairman, has received applications from many of the candidates for a place on the ticket.

The County Executive committee will meet next Monday for the purpose of assessing the expenses of the two primary elections, and to draw for names on the ballots.

W. T. Attendance Goes Up to 1052

Mrs. R. A. Bellah Died Monday After Lingering Illness

Mrs. R. A. Bellah, died Monday morning at 2:50 o'clock at the family home following an illness of several months. She has been treated at Mineral Wells and Temple in a vain effort to restore her health.

The funeral services were held at the first Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. R. Hicks, assisted by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum and Rev. J. R. Sharp. The active pall bearers were: S. B. Orton, Grady Oldham, G. G. Foster, W. C. Black, W. A. Warren, and J. M. Craig.

Mrs. Bellah was born in Ellis county on March 23, 1871, having reached the age of 63 years, 2 months and 18 days at the time of her death.

The family moved to Canyon 15 years ago, where Mr. Bellah and his son have engaged in the grocery business, and he was formerly Mayor of Canyon. Mrs. Bellah has taken an active part in all civic affairs, and in the work of the Baptist Church, of which she was an active member.

Surviving is the husband, R. A. Bellah, and two children, Alfred E. Bellah of Canyon, and Mrs. Frank Giles of Hereford; her father, J. M. Hix of Bowie, two brothers, Ord Hix and Ed Hix of Childress, and one sister, Mrs. A. B. Wells of Bowie.

TB Re-Check Will Be Completed In Randall This Week

Work of re-checking on the recent TB test in Randall county will be completed this week by the two federal veterinarians who were assigned to this work. The last herd in the county is being retested today, and the final readings will be made Saturday. So far no animals have been found to be affected with T. B.

In case any of the disease is found in the county, the government will send the veterinarians back in about six months for another test. If the county is free, no further tests will be made of the cattle, and a certificate will be issued showing the county is clear. At the present time the government recognizes Randall as being practically free of T. B.

League Asks That Utilities Stock Be Given Depository

B. C. Dickinson of Lubbock was here Tuesday and states that an agreement has been reached with the new owners of the Texas Utilities Co. whereby the old stock may be transferred. He believes that the transfer is fair to the owners, and that this is the only way by which anything will be realized on the old stock.

The First National Bank at Lubbock has been appointed as depository by the Protective League.

J. W. Reid of Canyon has been appointed to handle the stock in Canyon and those having stock should see him at once.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Craig have been at Kingston for the past two weeks at the bedside of Mrs. Craig's mother, who has been ill for several months.

130 More in Attendance Than Total Last Year

Enrollment at the West Texas State Teachers College has passed the figure for the entire summer session of 1933, having already reached the total of 1052.

Many more students have already sent their transcripts and made arrangements to enroll for the second term which opens July 16; so President J. A. Hill is now certain that the summer attendance will pass that of all recent years.

Many Counties Represented

When 949 students had registered, a check was made of their geographical distribution. It was found that they came from 117 counties of Texas, ranging from Dallam and Sherman on the north to Karnes and Houston on the south and from El Paso on the west to San Augustine on the east.

Outside of Randall county, the largest single representation is from Potter county with 72 students, while Wilbarger and Wichita counties, nearly 200 miles away have 13 students each. Many of the students who have come from Johnson, Sherman, Floyd, Hall, Hamilton, Comanche, Bell, Bosque, and other down-state counties were attracted to Canyon by the cool nights and other favorable climatic conditions which prevail in the summer months. One student stated "I have attended summer school at three other colleges in Texas and one in Colorado and have found the climate more comfortable at Canyon than anywhere I have been."

Six states other than Texas were represented in the first three days' enrollment; they were Nevada, 1; Oklahoma, 7; New Mexico, 22; Missouri, 2; Kansas, 3; and Colorado, 2.

Many Classes Crowded

An early check of classes showed that students are demanding work in health and physical education; in school administration, and in the arts, as well as in the traditional fields. Additions have been made to the faculty to take care of the large enrollment in some departments.

ORDINANCE ON MILK RAISES ITS STANDARD

12th City in Texas to Make Grade Over 90%

RATING OF 93%

132 Towns in State Under Standard Milk Ordinance

The city of Canyon was given her first state inspection last week by M. Pierson, the State Milk Supervisor for Texas. Canyon's dairies were in excellent shape, and unofficially the rating was figured to be around ninety-three per cent. The official figures will be sent to the City Hall from the Public Health Service at Washington when final tabulation is made. This is a very good record for a city to attain the first year after adoption of the Standard Milk Ordinance, and it makes Canyon the twelfth city in the State of Texas with a rating of ninety or better.

There are 132 towns and cities in the State operating under the Standard Milk Ordinance and only twelve of these have a rating above ninety.

The City Health Department wishes to thank the dairymen for their co-operation and the people of canyon as well. The consuming public is insisting on good, clean milk, help the city as well as the dairymen to maintain a high standard and a safe, wholesome product.

COMMISSIONERS FINISH CHECK ON RENDITIONS

The commissioners court has completed a check on the tax rendition blanks as prepared by Tax Assessor Burney Slack.

June 25th has been set as the day upon which the court will hear any complaints as to the values set by the court. About 150 tax payers have been notified of the changes in their renditions.

THE GOVERNOR'S RACE

(An Editorial)

Ingratitude on the part of an individual to a friend, or of a community toward its proven friend is almost inexcuseable.

The News has been taking a very active part in the present political campaign because of the gratitude we feel toward one candidate for Governor; a man who has been tried, and has been found to be a good friend of Canyon; a man who has been extremely loyal in the past, and the ONLY man in the present race who will be in a positive position to be of greater service to his friends in Canyon regardless of the outcome of the Governor's race.

Another candidate for Governor complained bitterly last week that two men from his own home town had been brought into the Governor's race in order to cripple him. In one breath he condemned this situation, but in the next he asked the voters of Randall county to turn against the man who had befriended them when we had to have a friend, and who will be in an important official position for the next two years regardless of who may be elected Governor. We are not condemning this candidate for going after the votes in Randall county and the other 253 counties of Texas, but Canyon has other things to take into consideration in this campaign.

Canyon made one terrible blunder 24 years ago when the people failed to support the man who actually and positively located the College in this town. The real issues in that campaign were clouded with petty issues injected by a whirlwind campaigner. That man went to his grave with a feeling of bitterness toward this county.

Canyon has an opportunity this year to show its appreciation of the man who kept the College from either being entirely abolished, or greatly injured during the economy fight of last year.

Another fight will be staged in the legislature next January. Regardless of the outcome of the Governor's race, Canyon needs a friend, either as Senator or as Governor, who will stand by the College.

In order that the people of Randall county may know just what went on in the fight to close some of the educational institutions, we are going to print some facts which few people here know, and regarding which Senator Small never speaks unless closely questioned. But these are the facts:

A month before the last legislature met, a State Senator who was in sympathy with the program of the so-called economy group down at Austin called a meeting of several senators in Fort Worth for the pur-

Mrs. C. E. Strain Died Monday, With Funeral on Tuesday

Mrs. Martha Gabrelle Strain died Monday afternoon at the family home following a lingering illness fo several months. Mrs. Strain was forced to quit her work in the Canyon public schools in the spring and was taken to Dallas for treatment.

Mrs. Strain was born at Forsbythe, Ga., Jan. 13, 1882, and was 52 years, 4 months and 28 days of age at the time of her death. The family has lived in Canyon for 11 years, Mr. Strain coming here as teacher of band music in W. T.

Chamber Commerce Working on Advertising for Palo Duro

J. H. Cox, Jr., president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, R. A. Terrill, director, and Fred E. Wortham, secretary, were in Amarillo Monday meeting with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce to discuss the advertising which will go out on the Palo Duro Park. A series of newspaper advertisements, sponsored by a large firm, together with the illustrated books in the process of printing were the matters discussed.

Further plans regarding the opening of the park in July were discussed.

GOVERNMENT TO PURCHASE COUNTY CATTLE

County Added to Drouth Territory After Local Protest

COMMITTEE WORKING

Will Buy All Cattle Offered at Established Prices

In response to the protest filed Wednesday night of last week, Randall county was immediately included in the cattle buying zone of the government and work was started Monday on the project.

"Every head offered to the government will be bought at the prices proscribed," stated Dr. R. V. Pilgrim, yesterday. Dr. Pilgrim has been assigned to Randall county. He was assisted the first of the week by Dr. S. E. Grove, who was replaced yesterday by Dr. Hugh Thaxton. These two veterinarians will continue the work in Randall county so long as cattle are offered for sale to the government.

The cattle committee of the county is composed of W. E. Bennett, L. J. Fulton, Clyde McElroy, T. V. Slack, and E. C. Robinson. J. D. Gamble was appointed clerk.

An office was opened in the commissioners court room where farmers may receive information regarding the new set-up.

200 cattle were appraised Monday afternoon, and the county will be covered as rapidly as the committee can do the work. Farmers who wish to dispose of cattle are requested to see one of the committeemen or Mr. Gamble at once in order that the county may be covered as quickly as possible.

It was only by the quick action of County Agent W. H. Upchurch, backed by Canyon business men, that Randall county was included in the government's cattle program. This county was not in-

He states that the term of enlistment for a number of men at Palo Duro will expire on June 30, and at that time the companies will be recruited to full strength.

If Amarillo, through the Tactless Texan, really wants to find out about brown stain of teeth, why not ask Dr. C. A. Pierle of W. T. who made a study covering several years under the auspices of the Dental Association? No man in the Panhandle knows more about brown stain than does Dr. Pierle. Old Tack should correct one thing in Amarillo, especially the attitude of his reporters; that not everything in the world centers on Polk street. Amarillo will never be the town it should be until its people get over the selfish ideas that everything worth while in the Panhandle is or should be located in Amarillo. If this country ever amounts to a whoop, towns like Canyon, Hereford, Pampa, and the rest of the bunch must grow and develop along with Amarillo, and have something worth while to attract people to the territory. Amarillo cannot hog the whole show in the way of parks, schools, oil fields, etc. Yet, practically every reporter on the Amarillo papers insists that the Palo Duro Park is just so many miles from Amarillo; ever so often some ambitious reporter places the West Texas State Teachers College "south of Amarillo," and of course the oil field is always Amarillo's. Building a Panhandle instead of just an Amarillo is the only way that town can grow as it should.

Rumors are usually very, very damaging things. W. T. would have at least 150 more students enrolled today if some citizens of Canyon had not talked when they should have been seeking information. While the students were coming into Canyon last week some citizens told several groups that every house in Canyon was filled and they had as well go some place else for the summer. A large number of prospective students left without going to the college building. The word spread to several counties and many went to other institutions who had planned to come here. As a matter of fact there are still desirable places in Canyon for many students. Other people would open their homes if necessary to take care of them. People should be very, very careful in making wild statements without first ascertaining the facts.

Of all the unheard of things in the way of pardons, Governor Ferguson springs a new one by issuing a proclamation that Bob Silver will be pardoned in 1936, about 18 months after she leaves office. That is absurd, and if allowed to stand, the Governor could issue pre-dated pardons to every man in the penitentiary before retiring next January. Clint Small says that if he is elected, the Silver so-called pardon will be revoked. It is about time that Texas elects a Governor who will treat the criminals as the criminals treat the members of society.

Judge A. J. Fires of Childress has been honored by having a life-sized painting ordered for the court rooms at Childress, Wellington and Memphis. Judge Fires is a real West Texan. It is fine that the people of his district believe in handing flowers to the living rather than wait until he is dead. Judge Fires is a director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and greatly interested in the work being done here.

Two banks at Childress merged last week into one institution, and two at Matador took the same step. The government is taking closer supervision of banks than in the past, taking stock in most of them and placing a guaranty upon deposits up to $2,500. If there are any bank failures in the future, some one will be punished for negligence.

pose of discussing the report on education. One senator who had an educational institution in his district made the bold statement that he would sponsor a bill to abolish his institution if the other senators would join him in abolishing the institutions in their districts.

Clint Small immediately opposed such a program and declared that no bill would ever pass the senate which would destroy or cripple any institution in this section of the state. That they were doing a necessary work for the State of Texas, and were being efficiently managed. Had Clint Small agreed to the bill as outlined that day, several educational institutions of Texas would today have been abolished, or greatly reduced in rank, and W. T. would have been one of the number. Clint Small stood by his friends that day—not only the friends here in Canyon, but every young man and woman in West Texas who desires an education in a teachers college. And the people should know that Clint Small is the only candidate for Governor who has a specific plank in his platform of approval for the teachers colleges. He believes in them because they are close to the people of Texas, and are responsible for the improvement in the common schools of the state.

There is not another candidate running for Governor who has ever done one single thing to help Canyon, with the sole exception of Edgar Witt while a member of the senate and as Lieutenant Governor.

Two ex-governors of Texas have said that no man in the race is better qualified to be Governor than is Clint Small, and a third, Jim Ferguson, four years ago approved his ability "after he got a little more experience."

Let's get down to earth, voters of Randall county, and definitely announce to the world that we are going to stay by our friend, Clint Small.

Every candidate running for Governor would be pleased to have the 2,000 votes from Randall county, but they will respect us more for staying with the man who has done so much for us, and who will be in a position to serve us, either as Governor or State Senator, in which office he has two more years to serve.

This campaign is not one in which the voters of Randall county should jump up and follow the candidates who sweep into the county with a lot of hysterical appeal on a platform which they know they can never put over.

The people of Canyon felt last year while the fight was on to reduce the rank of W. T. that to do so would greatly injure the institution and the investment of every citizen in Randall county.

Don't you believe that we had better be sensible this year and vote for the man who will represent our interests rather than for someone who promises us nothing, and might do us a lot of harm? Regardless of whether Clint Small goes into the second primary, we owe him a vote of gratitude for what he has done in the past. And furthermore, this second primary is not a cinch for any of the six leading candidates in the race, regardless of what any one of them says about wasting your vote. Reports from down state the past week indicate that Clint Small is gaining rapidly, and will go into the second primary if West Texas stays by its real friend.

This statement is not written with a view of criticising any candidate in the race, all of whom are pretty good men. But we do contend that the voters of Randall county would do a very, very foolish thing to support any other man than Clint Small, who is acknowledged to be as well or better equipped than any candidate in the race; who is our friend; who is running on a safe and sensible platform; and who will be our state official during the next two years regardless of this race.

Don't let the voters of Randall county do the foolish thing that we did 24 years ago.

This bold statement of facts is printed by The News six weeks before the first primary in order that no one may charge that it is a hysterical last minute appeal for Clint Small. There is not a word of bitterness toward any citizen who up to this time may have thought he should vote for some other candidate; but this clear statement is printed in order that the voters may know absolutely the facts, and may meditate as to what their duty should be in regard to the Governor's race in the primary of July 28.

EVETTS HALEY DIRECTOR OF HIST. SURVEY

250 Persons are Employed Collecting Variety of Materials

Under the direction of J. Evetts Haley, ex-student of W. T. and director of the State Historical Survey sponsored by the University of Texas, a wealth of historical data pertaining to the early days of Texas has been made available for general use. The survey has investigated the historical resources of fifteen Texas towns and cities representing as many regional divisions of the state. Employment was furnished to more than 250 persons in the various local projects, with supervision being given gratis by accomplished students in the field of history and social science.

"We feel that the results are a worthwhile permanent contribution to the life, literature and history of the state," Mr. Haley said.

Perhaps the largest division of the historical research survey was that of the indexing of historical references in a large number of early Texas newspapers. Transcriptions of a large quantity of historical material of which only one copy is available were made. In all cases results of the investigations have been kept in the local libraries and duplicate sets of indexes and carbon copies of transcriptions have been placed in the University of Texas library.

People of the Panhandle feel especially indebted to Mr. Haley for this and a great deal of other work he has done in this field.

THE TOUGHEST TEST A MOTOR OIL COULD TAKE!

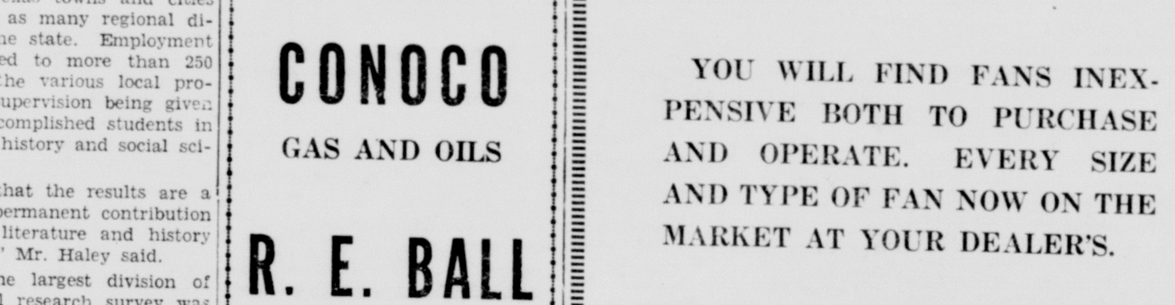
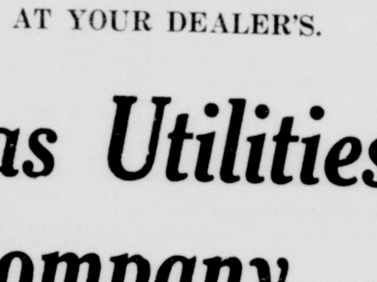
NEW AND IMPROVED CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL WINS THE TERRIFIC "DESTRUCTION" TEST!

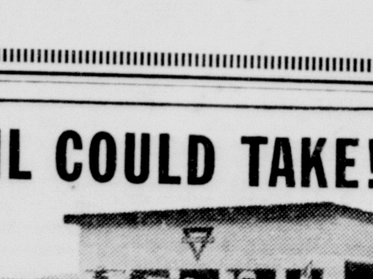


AAA SANCTION NO. 3001

These six new strictly stock cars were used in the "destruction" test, under AAA supervision.



Five quarts of each brand of oil of the same S.A.E. grade from measures checked by the Bureau of Weights and Measures, State of Indiana, were carefully put in the cars by AAA officials.



The official sealing of crankcases after fill of five quarts was put in. No addition of oil was permitted in this "destruction" test.

A DARING, competitive test—and what a result! New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil outdistanced five worthy rivals, thanks to the extraordinary film strength and penetrativeness our recently patented process gives it. Five quarts of this remarkable new oil lubricated a motor for the almost unbelievable distance of 4,729 miles before the motor was wrecked!

Five other oils, all nationally known, competed with New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil in this test. All cars were driven under AAA supervision, under exactly the same conditions until the motors could no longer operate. The notable thing is that five quarts of New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil went more than 3,000 miles farther than the first oil to fail, and over 1,400 miles farther than the best of its competitors!

The results of this test should guide your motor oil purchases from now on. Look for the Red Triangle Sign.

In one of Los Angeles' most shocking murder cases, Louis Rude Payne, above, 20, confessed, according to police, to the brutal hatchet slaying of his mother and 14-year-old brother. ## Clint Small Rally Will Be Held Monday, June 25th

An all-Panhandle Clint Small Rally will be held in Amarillo on Monday, June 25th. Representatives from every town in the Panhandle will attend the rally, and Senator Small will make the principal speech.

Bands from several towns will participate in the Rally, according to information received yesterday from headquarters in Amarillo.

Senator Small will speak tonight at 9:30 in a state wide broadcast from San Antonio on the crime situation in Texas.

Information received yesterday from Corpus Christi stated that Senator Small's speech in that city was received better than that of any of the candidates for Governor. While the Senator received few votes in South Texas four years ago, predictions were made that he would be the leading candidate in the Valley section of Texas.

'Touring World in a Day' Outstanding Feature of 1934 World Fair

Shades of night bring new enchantment to the Chicago World's Fair scene, illuminated by rockets and bizarre lighting effects. At left is the General Exhibits building and Hall of Science; in the foreground, the Hall of Religion, and, across the Lagoon, the Federal building, Communications group and Electric building.

IMPOSSIBLE to tour the world in a day? Not exactly; it is being done at this year's Chicago World's Fair. In several hours visitors may make the rounds, passing through Streets of Paris, Belgian Village, Black Forest, and Italian, Irish, Swiss, Dutch, Tunisian, Chinese, Spanish, Old English, and Early American villages.

This concentrated "Cook's Tour" is one of the outstanding attractions of the 1934 Century of Progress. But that isn't all. In the Lagoon—last year just a body of water between the mainland and Northerly Island—"the World's Largest Fountain," two blocks long, spouts a flow of water great enough to serve a city of a million people.

Atop Henry Ford's new museum of transportation each night, a gigantic, 200-foot torch throws its white beam a mile into the Chicago sky. Ford, who did not choose to run an exhibit last year, displays also a collection of vehicles dating from the New Deal almost back to Adam.

The Hall of Science has added some new wonders, and in the Electrical Group such miracles as producing black light and making water run uphill before your eyes are again being performed.

Frank (Bring 'Em Back Alive) Buck has a wild animal show that promises to be a sensation. Hundreds of monkeys scamper about the sides of a smoldering, volcanic "Monkey Mountain," while, in a miniature jungle at its base, wild beasts prowl through ferny caverns.

A score of new thrill purveyors, such as the Bug Ride, Motordrome, Gravity Coaster, Catapult, and others, that jerk, swing or otherwise manhandle the Fair visitor, have been installed.

TWENTY-THREE million people passed through the World's Fair turnstiles last year. This year an additional $8,000,000 is being invested in the show, and predictions have been made that the 1934 attendance will exceed 35,000,000.

There are reasons for those predictions. According to the Fair management, all the worthwhile and popular attractions of last year have been kept, and a wealth of new exhibits added.

Little time could be spent on landscaping a year ago, but the place this year will be one delightful garden of entrancing vistas.

Not only is the current Century of Progress claimed to be bigger and better, but also cheaper. While the admission is still 50 cents, most attractions inside the grounds can be seen at lower prices by 1934 visitors. Better traffic arrangements have been made to handle this year's crowds; and hotel keepers say they are in a position to accommodate more Fair patrons.

All in all, with the experience derived in staging the 1933 Century of Progress, the many new exhibits and the fact that hundreds of thousands, jobless last year, may swell the 1934 Fair's attendance, Chicago is confident it will put on another success.

Dr. C. A. Pierle Replies to Talk Made on China

Giving the other side of the Chinese question, Dr. C. A. Pierle talked to the Rotary Club Tuesday. He differed in opinion to the talk recently made by Fred Keys, an Englishman, stationed at Hong Kong. Dr. Pierle taught several years in China, and was in a position to know a different class of people than those described by Keys.

Dr. Pierle stated that the business men sent to China was there for the purpose of exploiting the natives. His contact was with the laboring element rather than with the merchants and higher classes of Chinese. The foreign business man treats the natives very badly, and therefore can expect the same thing in return.

Speaking from experience, Dr. Pierle states that the Chinese were honest, polite, and delightful.

J. H. Cox, Jr., had charge of the program and introduced the speaker.

Mrs. H. V. Spratt of Forney, Texas is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred E. Wortham and family and other relatives.

STUDES AND FACULTY DO WOOD WORK

Beautiful Pieces are Made By Both Men and Women

Making things which require a high degree of skill gives lasting satisfaction to a large number of students and faculty members of the West Texas State Teachers College who do their work in the Manual Arts shop of the college, according to Professor John A. Gillis, an instructor in the department.

Recently an exhibit of credit and avocational work which has been done during the spring months showed highly utilitarian articles such as ironing boards, decorative objects such as tile-inlaid coffee tables.

Another group in the exhibit was made up of models made by prospective primary teachers who have made doll beds, tiny rocking chairs, sleds, jumping figures, tables and similar objects which can be completed by small children in their crafts work. Mrs. Opal Thomas of Happy and Miss Alma Montgomery of Floydada exhibited these.

Men are usually thought of as the makers of furniture, but Annie Jewell Fawver, a sophomore student of Floydada made a combination end table and magazine rack which was considered one of the best in the exhibit, considering the short time she had worked with woods. Osce McCrerey, an art major of Canyon has made two large, comfortable lawn chairs which will appear on the McCrerey lawn.

Old Wood Used in Chest

A member of the college faculty, Miss Elizabeth Cox, had some pieces of black walnut from trees which were cut on her father's farm nearly half a century ago. From these pieces, Brewer Neal, a senior student built her a beautiful chest of drawers. Neal used his knowledge to help earn his way through college, and Miss Cox now has a useful piece of furniture which has a sentimental value as well.

Connie Roberson, a sophomore student of Tulia constructed an end table with book troughs, and book-ends. Dena Fay Jameson of Amarillo made a laminated red gum card table, with inlays of holly and mahogany rails. C. D. Coffee, Jr., of Amarillo, had a black walnut bed, on the four poster order, which will be finished in two-tone stain.

Faculty men find recreation in shop work, according to Mr. Gillis. Dr. A. M. Meyer of the education department has made several pieces of furniture for his home. Prof. Carl York, coach and mathematics teacher has spent many hours on a telephone table and chair of Philippine mahogany.

Both Professor R. A. Terrill, head of the Manual Arts Department and Mr. Gillis point out that training in the manual arts opens up a pleasant and valuable leisure time occupation. Both men and women who can use ordinary tools can save much expense in running their homes and can find through tools an outlet for their creative energies which will make them happier people.

HERE'S ONE REASON why long distance calls *are fast

WITHIN its own boundaries, this company, like each of the 24 Bell System associated companies, operates its own long distance system. But A. T. & T. trunk lines (shown on map) link these 24 separate systems into a nation-wide unit, over which skilled operators can send your voice almost with the speed of a local call to the remote reaches of the country.

Such nation-wide service would be virtually impossible without equipment built to the same designs and used in the same way . . . without operators trained in the same methods . . . without, in short, a nation-wide organization behind it.

How effectively A. T. & T. meets this need is shown by the fact that today 9 out of 10 long distance calls go through while you hold the line; by the constant pushing back of the frontiers of the voice until 92 per cent of the world's telephones are now within your reach; by four reductions in long distance rates, made voluntarily in recent years.

Here you may see the workings of a fundamental Bell System policy, adopted because we believe it to be a policy that works. In an organization planned like the telephone service for the long pull, we feel that what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that will bring us the sounder, more certain success.

When Toledo, O., Tasted War

NOTICE

TO DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS OF RANDALL COUNTY

The following communication from the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, at Austin, will be of vital importance to delinquent taxpayers in Randall County:

To The Tax Collector:

You will recall that from time to time since 1930, the Legislature has been suspending interest and penalties on delinquent taxes. Last May, the last measure of this kind was enacted, which provided a 2% penalty on all advalorem taxes delinquent on February 1st, 1933, (later they included the split tax payments which became delinquent on July 1, 1933,) if paid by December 30, 1933, and 4% penalty, if paid by March 31, 1934; and 6%, if paid by June 30, 1934. After this June 30, 1934, expiration date, the old law prescribing 10% penalty and 6% interest per year, will again be in force.

This means that on and after July 1, 1934, this year, the penalty and interest you will be required to charge will not be 6%, but will include 6% interest per annum from the date it was first delinquent, plus 10% penalty. For Example:

30% will be added to 1930 delinquent taxes
24% will be added to 1931 delinquent taxes
18% will be added to 1932 delinquent taxes

(A delinquent cost will also accrue in addition to above)

Inasmuch as the taxpaying public may not understand the law, I suggest that you give this matter as much publicity as possible, in order to bring to the attention of the taxpayer the great saving, if they take advantage of the remaining period, which expires June 30, 1934.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) GEO. H. SHEPPARD,
Comptroller of Public Accounts

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Martin Surmises That All Play and No Work Makes Max Baer a Short-Ender in His Coming Bout With Primo

BY PHILIP MARTIN

The main reason for this prognostication is that Maxie Baer's penchant for the bright lights and his absence from the ring certainly have done him no good. Jimmy McLarnin found out recently what soft living can do to a fighter.

On the other hand, Primo Carnera has been training assiduously in an effort to keep the bacon in the land of Mussolini, and when the bell sounds for their 15-round brawl on June 14, you can bet your best Sunday chapeau that he'll be in tip-top condition.

If Baer tires in the later rounds, as he is likely to do after his long layoff, he may be in for a sound thrashing. And if he concentrates his attack on Primo's head, he may be wasting his energy, for the Italian's jaw is far from fragile.

Jack Dempsey, of whom you may have heard, predicts that disaster will follow for Max unless he changes his tactics and crouches instead of trading punches in an upright position.

Jack believes Maxie should direct his fire at Carnera's midsection if he expects to do any damage whatsoever.

THAT thunderous noise you hear emanating from the general direction of Cleveland, O., is not caused by strikers, gangsters, or racketeers; it merely is base hits (extra) rattling off the bats of Cleveland Indians.

Pre-season dopesters had it all figured out that the Tribe would be found floundering around in the depths of the second division when the bell sounded for the end of the 1934 season. But so far the seers have been a sadly disillusioned lot.

The Redskins have been the sensation of the league, keeping up around first place and confident of their ability to remain there.

There are three reasons for this confidence—Odell Hale, second baseman; Bill Knickerbocker, shortstop; and Hal Trosky, first base.

The keystone combination, considered a gamble at the beginning of the season, now leads the American League in double plays and probably is the leading swatting second base duo in the league.

Trosky, after a rather sour start, has found his sights, and his big bat is booming the ball over Cleveland's short right-field wall at regular intervals—he hit three in succession over there in one day recently, tying the record.

The pitching staff, considered one of the best in the league, has been strengthened in the deal that saw Bob Weiland coming from Boston in exchange for Wes Ferrell, who refused to come to terms.

With good pitching, an infield that is clicking under the steadying influence of the veteran third sacker, Willie Kamm, and Outfielders Joe Vosmik and Earl Averill finding their batting eyes, the Indians are going to be tough to stop in their march to a pennant.

Conlen Lassie Captain In W. T.

Of exceptional interest in the summer student personnel of the college is the presence of Miss Embell Knight, former captain of the famous Conlen Lassies, whom she has led repeatedly to brilliant victory on the basketball court in the few years preceding her graduation from the Conlen High School this spring.

M. D. Blankenship, who has been her only coach through all her years of basketball training, and Mrs. Blankenship, loyal attendant of the team on all its trips, are also enrolled for the summer session in W. T. Report has been received that another member of the basketeers is expected to enter school as soon as she recovers from a temporary illness.

Miss Knight, besides earning for herself seven gold medals and one silver in athletic achievement, proved her scholastic ability by making between 92 and 98 on six out of nine subjects in a state examination last year.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

There was a nice increase in attendance at all services Sunday which encouraged us all.

The children's day program was excellent and rendered so well as to compliment the committee which was composed of Mrs. J. B. Ellis, ton, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. Ray Campbell, and Misses Esther Root, and Dorothy Harris. A nice offering was received for foreign missions.

Californian Wins British Title

Lawson Little, 23-year-old San Francisican and Stanford U. junior, seems to be quite proud of that trophy. And you can't blame him. It represents the British Amateur golf title, which Little won when he overwhelmed his opponent with dazzling golf at Prestwick, Scotland. He's the third American in 30 years to win the title.

REPAIRS

We make a sincere effort always to have on hand an adequate stock of GENUINE IHC Repairs for McCormick-Deering Farm Operating Equipment. We are in position to meet every reasonable repair demand on short notice. Nevertheless, there are definite advantages to you in ordering your parts and repairing your machines during the slack season rather than when you are in desperate need of the machines.

We suggest that you look over your equipment and order your GENUINE IHC Repairs now.

We have prices on GENUINE IHC parts that will compare favorably with the so-called "Will-Fit" parts. So why take chances on "Will-Fit" parts when the genuine will cost you no more? Don't waste money with experiments or with parts made only to sell, without any regard to service.

Wayside Items

Monday, June 11, is oppressively hot. But little wind is stirring. Likely will hasten harvest. Wheat is turning fast.

After two weeks duration, the Methodist revival closed Sunday morning. Pronounced good. Nine conversions and some reclamations. Seven united with the church, four by letter, three by profession. A fine spirit of co-operation by the different denominations was good to see. A goodly number of church members were revived. Rev. H. H. Allen of Earth did the preaching and was well received by all. His son, Gomer Ray, led in song service and did his part well. They left many friends here who would welcome them back to Wayside.

Joyce Lane has a bad case of tonsilitis. Irving Lane at Pampa has had same trouble.

Mrs. H. H. Allen reached Wayside Saturday afternoon, coming from Abilene where she had sponsored a group of young people. Coming by home, she drove more than 500 miles on Saturday. Her delight is to work with young people. They returned home Sunday afternoon, after a stop with Mrs. W. R. Franklin, who presented Mrs. Allen with a pair of canaries. She was delighted with the birds.

J. D. Roberts of Munday, Texas was severely burned from an explosion of gas late Saturday. Was brought to the school house when John Patterson took him to Happy for medical treatment, after which he was taken to W. M. Moroe's.

Will Howard and family have returned from Canyon to their home near Wayside.

W. I. Lane and W. J. Sluder made a trip to Amarillo Tuesday.

Joe Smith of Canyon visited Wayside Sunday night and Monday. Came out with Melton McGehee.

Mrs. Fannie Franklin will entertain the Work and Play Club at the school house Thursday afternoon.

Fannie May Franklin has a case of poison ivy on her hands.

Manford Counterman and family and his brother, Troy, visited the Sluder home Sunday. They spent the afternoon sight seeing in Palo Duro, going as far as JA headquarters.

Famed Quintuplets, Parents

Bored with it all, five tiny wisps of femininity who attained world fame within a few hours after their birth are shown above slumbering while their father, Ovilia Dionne, left, of Corbeil, Ont., proudly watches over them. ## Warning Issued on Checks Issued By Construction Co.

A smooth gang is operating over Texas, passing checks to grocery stores for a considerable bill of groceries and the balance of the check in cash. Warnings have been sent from various towns where the checks have been drawn. With much road work in progress over the state the swindlers have found it easy to dispose of the checks.

A member of the gang was in Canyon Friday with a check drawn up in an impressive manner, showing project number and other earmarks usually observed by construction firms. The man with the check said that his firm was working on the highway west of Canyon. A bill of groceries amounting to a little more than $20 was set aside "for the truck at 3:00 o'clock," and the man disappeared with $7 in cash.

The gag has been worked in most of the county seat towns of the state.

Cattle, diseased or otherwise unfit for human consumption, will be slaughtered probably on the owner's place and buried. Under one year old this class will bring $4 per head; from one to two years old $10, and two years old and over, $12. Cattle fit for eating under one year old will get from $5 to $8; from one to two years old, $11 to $15, and over two years old from $13 to $20. ## Edward K. Russell Spoke Here Candidate for Governor

A lifelong friend of education, Edward K. Russell, prominent northeast Texas citizen, who is a candidate for governor, chose Canyon as a logical place to emphasize the education plank contained in his platform. He addressed an attentive audience on the courthouse lawn here Friday morning.

"Our schools should be encouraged and fostered," he declared, "for the glory of our state can only be continued by the general diffusion of knowledge."

"Science, art, and literature have meant much to the history of the world. I propose to encourage their advancement in Texas."

The candidate told his audience that the school teacher is the dominant personality in shaping the careers of the youth of our state, and that "sufficient consideration and encouragement should be given the school teachers to enable them to happily and satisfactorily assume their responsibility."

Attacking the education problem specifically, he said: "Such adjustment must be made, and such procedure adopted as will make available the immediate payment to all school teachers of their salaries as they become due, without discount in any amount.

A life long prohibitionist, Mr. Russell discussed his opposition to a repeal of our state liquor regulation. "It is an insult for any man to appear before decent people," he said, "advocating tearing down our regulatory structure regarding this evil, proposing thereby to sell the future welfare and happiness of the people of this great state for a little tax money.

Joe Bailey Makes Appeal to Voters of Randall County

Joe Bailey, candidate for United States Senator from Texas, made a short talk Tuesday morning to a number of voters in the interest of his candidacy. Most of his time was spent in criticising his opponent, Senator Tom Connally.

He stated that while the present congress had devoted all of its time to measures which seek to bring the nation out of the depression, that the next congress must formulate the permanent policy of the nation. The people will have an important part in formulating this policy by selecting the right type of men for the work. Mr. Bailey was of the opinion that the present restrictive policy must be abandoned, and the citizens given a free hand to expand their businesses and increase their products.

Launching into the idea of loyalty to the President, Mr. Bailey compared his votes with that of Senator Connally. He charged that Connally had voted against the administration as many times as he had, and upon important measures. He charged that Connally was in the Texas group at the Chicago convention two years ago which attempted to "Stop Roosevelt."

He discussed the Ickes oil bill, upon which he charged Senator Connally had not taken a stand. He opposed this bill as Texas produced 5-6th of the oil of this nation, and the transfer of oil control to Washington would deprive Texas of the control of its greatest natural resource.
